GERMANS EVACUATE LILLE

London—A despatch from Boulogne says that the evacuation of Lille by the Germans after a terrific bombardment is confirmed.

Dunkirk is again menaced by Germans, an aerial squad dropping thirty bombs there yesterday and then starting across the channel to bombard English coast towns.

The British are strengthening their position around Lille.

HEAVY LOSSES AT SOISSONS

Paris—The Germans lost heavily in their attempts to retake positions in the vicinity of Soissons, recently taken from them by the Allies. The French have made progress there and captured some prisoners.

REPORT FROM GERMANY

Berlin—The French have again failed to retake Bérnhaup le Haut, nor could they dislodge the Germans from their positions.

The heaviest fighting of the day in the west was at Soissons.

SITUATION IN THE EAST

Vienna—The situation remains unchanged. Artillery duels marked the fighting during Sunday.

TURKISH SHIPS INJURED

Petrograd—The cruisers Breslau and Hamid, of the Turkish navy, were both severely damaged in a naval engagement which took place on Wednesday.

BRITAIN TO AMERICA.

Washington—The reply of Great Britain to the note of the United States in regard to the detention of American cargoes on the high seas is satisfactory in a measure. It is thought, however, that there is one point in the note that will not be acceptable to the United States, and that is the British view that cargoes seized must be taken into some British port for extended examination.

Redress will be made whenever Great Britain exceeds in any of her actions international law.

VILLA TURNS THE TABLES

Laredo—It is reported here that General Villa has reversed the victory of Carranza, previously reported, and captured Victorio, defeating the Carranza army.

HOTED HUMORIST DEAD

St. Paul, Minn.—Marshall P. Wilder, humorist, died here yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS

Sunday, January 10.

Sugar, 4.05

BATTLESHIP DUEL REPORTED

Buenos Ayres—According to a report arriving here from La Prensa, near the Equator, the first big ship duel of the war has been fought near that point, the ships engaged being the British battleship Invincible and the German battleship Von der Tann, in which the latter, with her crew of 900 men, went to the bottom.

REPORT FROM PARIS.

Paris—The French continue to advance north of Soissons, where all ground has been organized and fresh territory taken.

ALLIES NEAR OSTEND.

London—The Allies are said to be within nine of from Ostend, from which place all civilians have fled, believing a battle is about to be fought.

GERMANS RETAKE STEINBACH

Basle (Switzerland)—It is reported here that the French, after suffering heavy losses attempting to defend their new positions, were forced to retire from Steinbach towards Thann. The Germans immediately occupied Steinbach.

ROUMANIA AND GREECE.

London—Everything points to the early participation of Roumania in the war as one of the Allies.

Popular excitement in Greece over the persecution of Greeks in Syria by the Turks has grown to fever heat. Government may be forced to take action which will precipitate war.

GREAT FLEET THROUGH CANAL.

Washington—It will be a great fleet of American vessels that will pass through the Panama Canal to the Pacific coast. Included in it will be 21 battleships, 23 destroyers and 13 auxiliary vessels. The old battleship Oregon and cruiser Olympia, principals in the naval battles at Santiago and Manila, respectively, will join the fleet at Cristobal. President Wilson will sail on the battleship New York.

AMERICA'S RESPONSIBILITIES

New York—Myron T. Herrick, American ambassador to France, said last night that America must be prepared to assume greater responsibilities after the war is over.

MORE TROUBLE IN COLORADO

Denver—Conditions in the mine strike zone are still unsettled. It has been found necessary to send troops back to Walsenburg to guard the jail.

AT THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

Washington—It was reported here yesterday that Gutterer has a positive peace plan for the pacification of Mexico.

House and Senate conferees have agreed to eliminate the provision added by the Senate exempting Belgians from certain of the restrictions provided in the new immigration bill. If the report is accepted, the bill will go to the President for an expected veto.

JOHN K. SUMNER DEAD

Honolulu—John K. Sumner, owner of Sumner's Island, off Honolulu harbor, whose estate and trust matters figured often in the courts a few years ago, was found dead in bed at the home of his nephew, Wyllie Davis, near Makapu.

The three lieutenants Lyman will have charge as directors of the Carnival ball.

Saturday Afternoon.

GERMANS WILL ATTACK

London—The Germans are starting a drive in an attempt to cut the line of the Russians, taking advantage of the increasing cold weather. An attack will be made from the north with reinforcements taken from the western front. The Germans will cross the rivers Mar and Bug before beginning the attack.

RUSSIANS ENTER TRANSYLVANIA.

Paris—The Russians have entered Transylvania. The Austrians have evacuated all of Bukovina and opened a new road to Hungary. (Transylvania is a province in the southeast part of Hungary, the capital of which is Klausenberg.

REPORT FROM BERLIN

Berlin—French attacks near Perthes repulsed with severe losses. French positions stormed in east Argonne. Captured 1,200 men. French driven out of Burnhaupt Lehaute. In Alsace, near Soupir, last night we captured a hill and 132 men in a brilliant attack and repulsed three counter attacks.

Honolulu—In the already famous Smart case, H. G. Smart denies every allegation in the complaint filed against him and will fight the case. He has retained attorneys. The child has been left at Waimea, Hawaii island.

Saturday, January 9.

Sugar, 4.05.

PERSIA READY TO FIGHT

Rome—Persia is ready to enter the war as an ally of Russia. The Minister of the Persian Shah at Rome announces that the invasion of a portion of Persia's domains by the Turks has left his country with no recourse but to fight.

Constantinople ignores entirely an ultimatum sent by Persia covering the latter matter.

Persian participation in the war would greatly assist Russia in the campaign against Armenia, and aid in British naval operations.

BRITAIN'S NOTE IS RECEIVED

Washington—Secretary Bryan has received Great Britain's reply to the note of the United States protesting against interference by British warships with American commerce.

Secretary Garrison, War Department, denies a rumor which has been started to the effect that the rifles recently discarded by the American army and navy were being sold to belligerents in Europe.

REPORT FROM THE FRENCH

Paris—In all engagements the French have been successful. Results in Alsace have been satisfactory. The Germans have been driven back in the Argonne district.

ITALY AND ROUMANIA WAVING

The Grand Jury declares that the alleged plot to "do up" United States Attorney McCann was the product of a drunken brain.

Entertained On Hawaii

Word comes from Hawaii that Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hughes, of Elele, have been much entertained on that island. Up to last accounts five receptions had been given, four of which were in honor of Mrs. Hughes. In addition to these, there had been given, also in honor of Mrs. Hughes, two lunches, three teas and a charity supper.

So Say We All

The Honolulu Star-Bulletin says, editorially:

Kauai homesteaders are looking forward with an eagerness akin to anxiety to the construction of a railroad in Kauai district. The plans seem at last to be moving smoothly after many delays and considerable red tape, the government's hands being tied by the laws and statutes made and provided. The Kapaa homestead experiment is one of the most important in the territory and it should not be allowed to fail. From present prospects, it won't.

Alohihea Now "Boss"

The harness shop of Mr. W. H. Rice, Sr., back of the GARDEN ISLAND office, was turned over to J. P. Alohihea on the first of the year as a sort of New Year present from Mr. Rice, as a testimonial of appreciation of ten year's service as manager. The shop specializes in harness and saddle making, and automobile trimmings.

JAPANESE KILLED BY RAILROAD CARS

A Japanese named Kitayama was caught between railway cars on Kilauea plantation Sunday morning and died later from his injuries.

He was engaged at the time as brakeman on the train, and in some way slipped and fell between the train and a car which he was about to attempt to "couple up".

An inquest was held and verdict of death by accident returned.

Elele News Notes

R. L. Hughes returned in the Kinau after a short visit to the island of Hawaii. Mrs. Hughes and little son remained over with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Scott, and will return shortly.

George S. Raymond, inspector-general of schools, will arrive on Kauai tomorrow for a tour.

Miss Carol Low, of Honolulu, has started a dancing school at Makaweli. The next meeting of the class will be Saturday evening.

Cooking classes and the serving of hot lunches are new features in both Elele and Waimea schools.

The Waimea Literary Club met with Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, Makaweli, Saturday evening.

Story Is Doubted

There is much doubt of the authenticity of the story sent all over the world a few days ago about a battle between the British warship, Invincible and the German Von der Tann off the coast of South America, and the Associated Press is trying to run down the actual facts. Fairly believable reports have it that the Von der Tann was in the recent raid off the coast of England, hence could not have been off South America so few days later.

The next steamer to arrive at Port Allen will be the Hyades. She will likely put in her appearance next Tuesday.

For County Treasurer

Lihue, January 11.

The Voters of Kauai County: I am in the race for the nomination on the Republican ticket, at the Primary Election to be held March 13, 1915, for the office of County Treasurer.

Although new in the running for public office, I feel that I am sufficiently well known to all of you to ask for your cordial support and votes. If nominated and elected, I promise you a highly satisfactory administration of the office.
